BIG FOOTBALL GAMES—Today's football schedule includes some thing like eighty games. Among these are some of the big battles of the season. These games will be described in The Sunday Tribune.

RACING AT LATONIA—With the running of the Latonia cup at Latonia next Saturday, the fall season closes at that famous track. The Latonia cup is one of the reforms in the writing of baseball contracts. The proposed changes are of the highest importance. They are printed in detail in the Sunday paper.

FOOTBALL LOCALLY—Football in Utah holds first place in the season's athletic activities. There will be a game today between the high school elevens of Jordan and Ogden and many other gridiron battles in which Utah lads will ing insurance companies, led by the New York Life, have questioned that feature of the law which imposes a tax on corporation holders of state or municipal bonds, of which they hold large amounts, while exempting the individual.

The provisions of the law requiring employers to withhold the tax on salaried employees receiving more than the exempt amount and in respect to the tax on rents to be withheld by Three mine guards today were arrested by the troops at Berwind after they had fired several shots in the air.

Several leading bankers said they knew nothing further of it than the talk that was going on in the streets. The withdrawals did not reach the proportion of runs on the banks, but the bankers appeared apprehensive that this might be the result should the excitement continue. The manager of one of the leading banks expressed the opinion that President Huerta, who thus far has confined his finanmy newspaper than the advertisements," said a woman who always shops wisely. "The advertisements are sure to be about something good. They tell me the things I want to know."

HOBBART—"Seeing Life with John Henry", in which John tells an interesting story on home dinners.

FOREIGN—Special cables from all the old world capitals and news from all parts of the globe.

DETECTIVE STORY—Maurice Lablanc writes another of the interesting confessions of Arsene Lupin. "The Sign of the Shadow" is intensely interesting from start to finish.

CHILDREN—Lady Constance Richardson, the titled dancer, gives her usual rules for the "all round" development of boys and girls.

FASHIONS—Lady Duff-Gordon says that the harems make our fashions for the winter. The craze for the Oriental is increasing and dresses are becoming more "feminine."

RADIUM—New miracles of medicine are being accomplished by the use of the mineral. Physicians are reporting surprising numbers of diseases as being cured by its use.

RACING AT LATONIA—With the running of the Latonia cup at Latonia next Saturday, the fall season closes at the track. The Latonia cup is one of the year's big events. An article is devoted to a discussion of the stake and the sprinters that will fight it out.

THORP ON FOOTBALL—No more entertaining writer on football lives than Tom Thorp. He has an extended article in the Sunday Tribune about the changes of big eleven in the struggles one week hence, struggles in which the year's championship will be victoriously affected, if not decided.

GIBBONS AND M'FARLAND—Naughton chorlines at the prospect of a fight between Mike Gibbons and Rocky McFarland. The noted expert tells of the characteristics of the clever pugilists.

AROUND THE WORLD—The present tour of the Giants and White Sox recalls the celebrated world tour of 1888. A column is devoted to a review of that wonderful trip.

PLAYERS' REFORMS—At the annual meeting of the big league magnates in December there will be presented a demand for certain reforms in the writing of baseball contracts. The proposed changes are the highest importance. They are printed in detail in the Sunday paper.

FOOTBALL LOCALLY—Football in Utah holds first place in the season's athletic activities. There will be a game today between the Utah school eleven and Jordan, and Ogden and many other gridiron battles in which Utah lads will take part.

Every now and then you read the stock market news that someone is going to "cut a melon."

There are many melons being cut every day and the news of the same is told in the advertising columns of live newspapers like The Tribune.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 31.—The government encountered some difficulty in meeting its payrolls for the ten days ending today. In some of the departments only partial pay was made, and in others it was paid to the men that remained. The remainder would be forthcoming tomorrow. In other departments payment had to be deferred entirely. Later, however, the government secured funds and tonight began giving the men in all departments their pay. The paymasters had instructions to continue at work all night if necessary.

Rumors of the inability of the government to meet their financial promises spread over the city rapidly, coupled with another recently circulated that President Huerta purposed to levy a tax of 15 per cent on all bank deposits. The latter rumor spread to such an extent that many persons drew their funds from various banks. Apparently there was no basis for the rumors.

Several leading bankers said they knew nothing further of it than the talk that was going on in the streets. The withdrawals did not reach the proportion of runs on the banks, but the bankers appeared apprehensive that this might be the result should the excitement continue. The manager of one of the leading banks expressed the opinion that President Huerta, who thus far has confined his financial efforts to legal bounds, would not
